Introducing The Ultimate Mediterranean Wedding Package

BY CAROLINE COOPER ON 4TH FEBRUARY 2020

Is there anything better than a wedding? A celebration of two people's love and commitment truly is something to be celebrated. Yet more often than not the planning can be overwhelming and stressful for the bride and groom. There's so much pressure to get everything right, from choosing the perfect venue, to ensuring everyone has somewhere to stay and most importantly making sure that your Wedding is one to remember.

Journey's by Jet, a luxury tour operator, and Flitestar Private Air have created a wedding package fit for the A-List. This dynamic package will fly you and your wedding party by a private all business-class Boeing 737 direct to Paphos; home to the island of love, Cyprus.

With guaranteed sunshine, crystal-waters, breathtaking views and delicious cuisine, all the stressful parts of your wedding planning will be taken away with the help of With This Ring; a Cyprus based wedding planners who help make your dreams a reality. And with so many bride and grooms saying that their big day went too fast – this incredible deluxe package sees your wedding celebrations last five glorious sun-soaked days.

You and your guests will check-in at the private jet terminal at Stansted airport

As with all good holiday's, your celebration will start at the airport. You and your guests will check-in at the private jet terminal at Stansted, gone are the days of queuing for your morning coffee as you and your nearest and dearest will be greeted with delicious tea, coffee and pastries. Leaving you able to meet and greet your guest's safe in the knowledge that they're being taken care of.

Once onboard you and your wedding party will be treated to the ultimate VIP treatment with a three-course lunch before touching down in sunny Paphos. Everyone knows that the ultimate weddings are all about the detail, and whilst it's necessary to get a luxury coach to the harbour before reaching your final destination, no luxury wedding is complete without a private yacht transfer to the Anassa Hotel, where the big day will be hosted.

The Anassa, a five-star hotel, is used to giving the VIP treatment with celebrity clientele including, Sting and Gordon Ramsey. The high-end beachfront resort is the ultimate luxury escape with its domed ceilings, swimming pools, private beach, trickling waterfalls and an award-winning spa – ensuring both you and your guests feel revitalized and ready for the big day.

Like all great wedding's abroad, a cocktail reception and dinner will be hosted for you and your guests on the evening of your arrival, leaving you all to unwind relax and get to know each other before the wedding day itself. But the party need not get carried away as the following day, guests will be collected by a private luxury coach and taken to a local winery for a tour of the winery, wine tasting followed by a traditional Cypriot lunch.

The third day is the day that everyone has been waiting for – wedding day!! After a leisurely breakfast the preparations for the wedding will begin. The bride and groom can choose where in the exclusive Anassa resort they'd like the civil ceremony to take place and with exquisite views of the Mediterranean from the hillside resort you really are spoilt for choice. There's nothing much more romantic to be on the water's edge looking out onto the glistening sea with your soulmate surrounded by your loved ones.

After you've taken your vows, wedding photos will be taken before an evening banquet under the stars as you soak in the electric atmosphere as a saxophonist plays blissful tunes as you and your future husband or wife soak in this magical day that you've created together...like all good wedding's the wedding breakfast will be followed by a DJ and guarantee all of your guests up and on their feet.

All good things must come to an end. But unlike other weddings where the following day your guests leave your venue with foggy heads and some left over wilting flowers, your guests will be left to lounge around the Anassa's five-star luxury pool or for those adventure junkies quad biking in the Akamas on their final day of luxury before dinner at their leisure and their final night of this magical wedding experience.
